HOTEL SAN PIETRO

POSITANO

A legendary 5-star hotel that opened in 1970 and towers above the sea, next to Positano. The top room – Suite Virginia, with its private access to the panoramic pool and direct-entry elevator, is clad in furniture and fabric recalling the theme and colors of the sea. It also stars a living room with a fireplace. Other notable features include the Beach Bar and Zass restaurant (1 Michelin star) of Chef Alois Vanlangenaeker, offering high-class dishes made with farm-to-table products from the structure's organic orchard or local suppliers.

ilsanpietro.com

IL REFETTORIO

CONCA DEI MARINI

On another cliff on the Tyrrhenian Sea, close to Conca dei Marini, you may spot the silhouette of the Monastero Santa Rosa hotel. Legend tells that the former convent dated 1680 was the birthplace of the Neapolitan sfogliatella recipe, created by the nuns of the monastery. This dream setting hosts Il Refettorio, run by Chef Alfonso Crescenzo. The restaurant boasts a Michelin star and combines Neapolitan/Mediterranean food tradition and new cooking techniques.

monasterosantarosa.com

HOTEL MIRAMALFI

AMALFI

Fine Italian designer furniture, excellent service, and bright rooms distinguish this 5-star hotel established in 1956 by the Mansi family, who still own the structure. The Miramalfi belongs to the "Autentico" Italian luxury hotels and features 36 classy rooms, all with a balcony and view of the Amalfi Coast. The Executive Suite (60 m²/646 ft²) is the most cherished customer choice, with a private terrace, lawn, and outdoor shower. The hotel also organizes private sunset cruises with an onboard happy hour.

miramalfi.com

VOLTA DEL FUENTI

VIETRI SUL MARE

Chef Michele De Blasio won his first Michelin star in 2025 at Volta del Fuenti restaurant, close to Vietri sul Mare. With its modern furniture and large panoramic windows, the restaurant belongs to the Giardino dei Fuenti complex, a park including terraced gardens, a cellar bar, and one of the most exclusive beach bars/clubs on the Coast. The kitchen offers two tasting menus: the more creative Riflessioni ($190) and the more traditional Origini ($160).

giardinidelfuenti.com